

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 9TH

1:30 - 4:30pm

MCPL Selden

Band of Sisters tells the story of Catholic nuns and their work for social justice after Vatican II of the 1960s. This film is for Catholics who wonder what became of the nuns they knew in habits and convents many years ago, for activists who may feel profoundly discouraged given the problems of today's world, for women seeking equality in their church, and for people of all faiths yearning for an inclusive and contemplative spirituality.

Band of Sisters challenges us to ask what really matters in life. And as we seek what matters, how do we go about changing our lives and the world around us?

Join us for the film, followed by a discussion with two of the nuns who appear in the film, Sr. Margaret Galiardi, a Dominican Sister of Amityville and Sr. Pat Mahoney, a Sister of St. Joseph of Brentwood.

Please let us know if you require any special accommodations due to a disability.
