BAND of SISTERS

A FILM BY MARY FISHMAN

Band of Sisters follows two nuns during the course of four years as they work for the rights of immigrant detainees. The film illuminates the cutting-edge work of other sisters in housing, health care for low-income people, and in the movement to close the School of the Americas. It also explores how new understandings of the universe story have led sisters to a deepening understanding of our roles and responsibilities as humans on the planet.

The film's goals are: to make known and keep alive this dramatic story that is so important to our country and to the Catholic church; to help the sisters in their mission and to give them well-deserved recognition for their accomplishments; and to inspire others to work for justice for all of God's creation.
